

Read Aloud For English

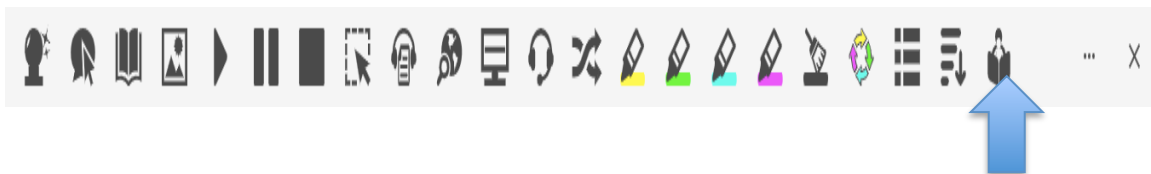

“Read Aloud allows students to practise reading aloud. It Allows students to practise and record themselves reading selected text, use support tools, and listen to their own recordings. It works within Word, OneNote online, as well as the Web.

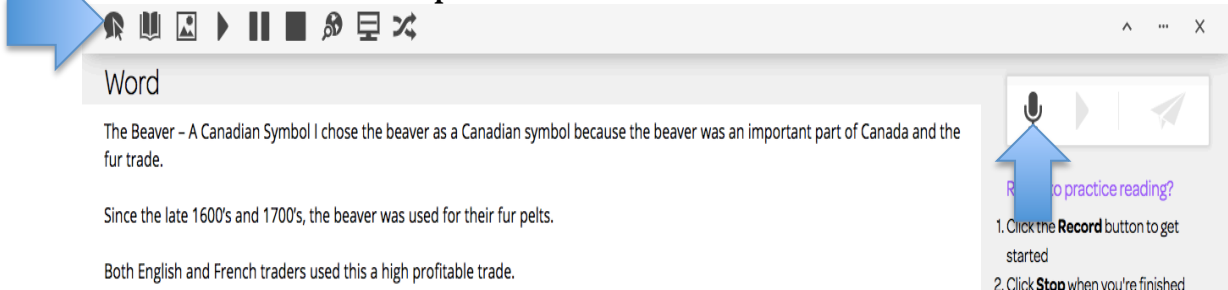

- Open a text document
- Highlight text within the document

- Select “Read Aloud”

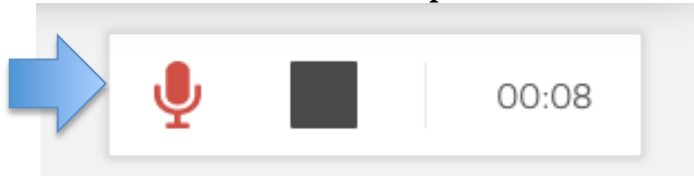

The text will then open

Tools such as “Hover”, “Dictionary”, “Picture Dictionary”, “Play”, “Web Search”, “Screen Mask”, and “Translator” are available to assist with reading. Students can first practise hearing it.

- Select the microphone on the right side of the screen
- Students can record themselves reading

Record and the microphone will turn red

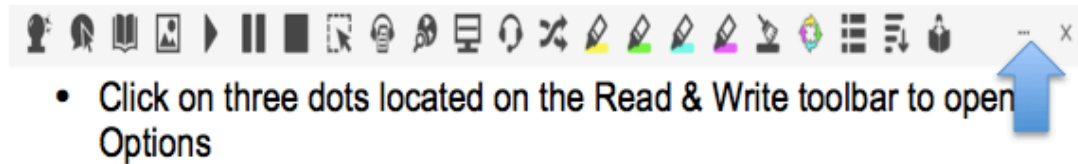

Stop

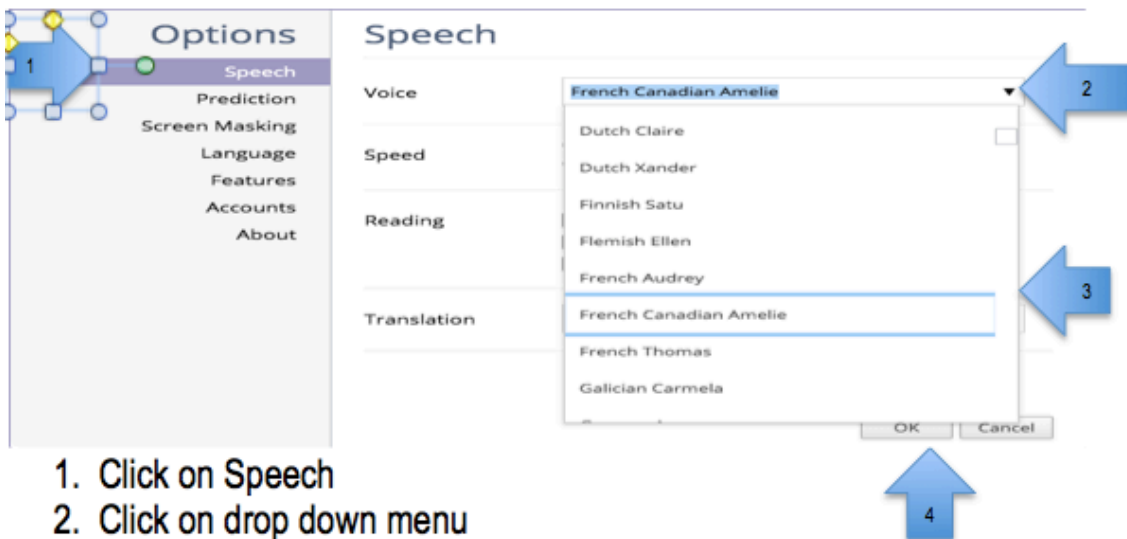

Play recording back

Students can then send their recordings to their teachers!

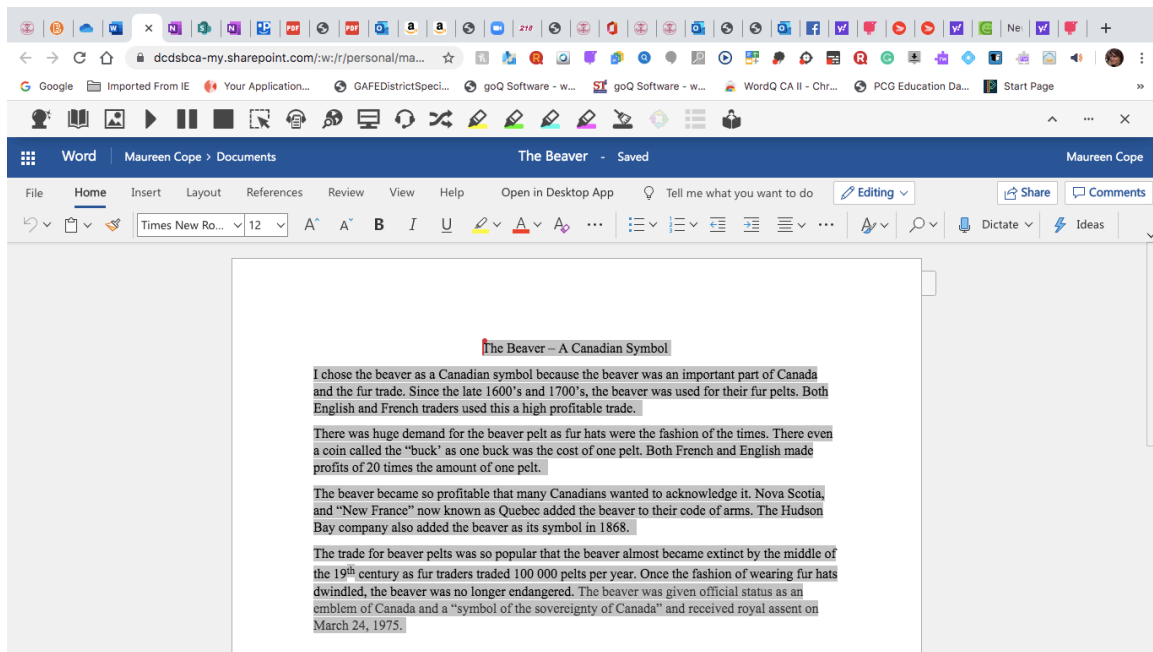

- Click on three dots located on the Read & Write toolbar to open Options

1. Click on Speech
2. Click on drop down menu
3. Pick French Canadian Amelie
4. Click on ok

“Read Aloud allows students to practise reading aloud. It Allows students to practise and record themselves reading selected text, use support tools, and listen to their own recordings. It works within Word, OneNote online, as well as the Web.

- Open a text document
- Highlight text within the document

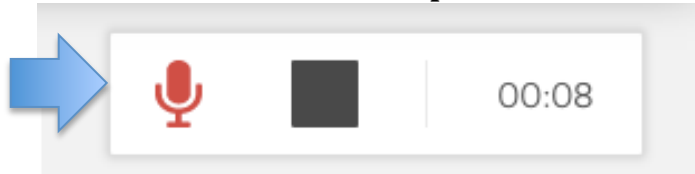

- Select “Read Aloud”

Tools such as “Hover”, “Dictionary”, “Picture Dictionary”, “Play”, “Web Search”, “Screen Mask”, and “Translator” are available to assist with reading. Students can first practise hearing it.

- Select the microphone on the right side of the screen
- Students can record themselves reading

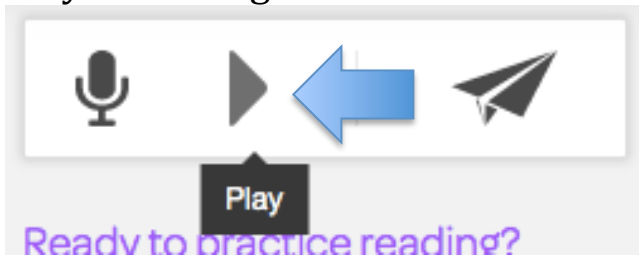

Record and the microphone will turn red

Stop

Play recording back

Students can then send their recordings to their teachers!

